Since 1974, AHC Media LLC has been one of the largest and most trusted publishers of healthcare newsletters in the world. Beginning with a single title, Hospital Infection Control, they have grown to over 50 publications. Serving a broad spectrum of professionals in healthcare, they are also a leading electronic publisher, providing timely e-newsletters along with a selection of online products not found anywhere else.

Alternative Medicine products from AHC Media LLC offer physicians unbiased information on vitamins, herbs, supplements and other alternative healing methods their patients may be using. Known benefits as well as drug interactions and side effects are thoroughly reviewed and reported on, allowing doctors to better control treatment options for their patients. Products include titles such as: Alternative Medicine Alert, Alternative Therapies in Women's Health and The Physician's Guide to Alternative Therapies, Post HRT Evidence Guide, Clinicians Guide to Nutritional Health, Sports Medicine, and Alternative Health Therapies.

In addition to newsletters, AHC Media LLC produces sourcebooks and hosts nationwide conferences covering a wide array of healthcare topics. As one of the leading providers of continuing medical education, AHC Media LLC allows nurses and physicians the flexibility to earn credits in both print and online formats.
